

SEMDA Spring Workshop Agenda
March 9, 2024
Ann Arbor District Library, Pittsfield Branch.
2359 Oak Valley Dr., Ann Arbor, MI 48103.

Lunch provided and sponsored by Enfamil®

The workshop offers four CPEUs

Arrive/Introduction: 11:30 am-12:00 pm

1. Bethany Thayer, MS, RDN, FAND – Henry Ford
 - a. Time: 12:00 pm-1:00 pm
 - b. Topic: Becoming a Licensed Provider in Michigan: Where We've Been, Where We Are, And Where We Are Going
 - i. Learn how an idea becomes a bill and then becomes law.
 - ii. Learn how to be an advocate.
 - iii. Learn how to get involved in supporting your profession.
2. Sara Glanz, MS, RD, LD, CNSC (from Dietitians On Demand) - VIRTUAL
 - a. Time: 1:10 pm-2:20 pm
 - b. Topic: Exploring the Master's Degree Mandate
 - i. Explain the new education requirement for registered dietitians.
 - ii. Discuss the rationale for the change.
 - iii. Address questions, myths, and misconceptions about the change
3. Tom Pietrowsky, MS, RD, CCTD – Henry Ford
 - a. Time: 2:30 pm-3:30 pm
 - b. Topic: The Ins and Outs of Nutrition in Intestinal Transplant
 - i. Describe the clinical indications and goals for intestinal transplant.
 - ii. Indicate the various types of intestinal transplant grafts.
 - iii. Describe diet recommendations for post-intestinal transplant.
4. Rachel Salzman, MS, RD, CDN, CDCES - VIRTUAL
 - a. Time: 3:40 pm-4:40 pm
 - b. Topic: Data-Driven Diabetes Care: Leveraging Apps for Personalized Care
 - i. Discuss how diabetes apps can support diabetes self-management and impact healthcare delivery
 - ii. Review potential challenges that may limit adoption
 - iii. Learn how to apply the ADCES Identify-Configure-Collaborate (ICC) framework to individualize app selection and lead data-driven discussions